GREET THE DAY

Greet the Day celebrated its 10th Anniversary of serving cancer patients. Spa Gregorie owner Angela Cortright has worked to improve the quality of life for people affected by cancer through "Greet The Day". The program announced a partnership with the UCSD Moores Cancer Center to extend restorative body work services. Greet the Day has been improving the quality of life for people affected by cancer with complimentary oncology massage.

InnerMission Productions worked with the Center for Community Solutions to present One Billion Rising San Diego, part of a global uprising to bring an end to domestic violence against women and girls, on Feb.14 with events held all day beginning with a citywide strike at 2:14 on 02.14.2013.

The Junior League of San Diego held its Wiggin" Out, a wine soiree benefiting the National Alopecia Areata Foundation on Feb. 21. The event was held at Fifty Seven Degrees wine bar. In addition to assisting a worthy cause, the event provides the JLSD with an opportunity to train new members and provide the leadership development needed to help create the next generation of civic and community leaders.

TASTE OF THE NFL

In honor of Chef Jonathan Hale's journey to the Super Bowl a "Taste of the NFL" 3-course menu was offered at the Prado Restaurant from Jan. 19 to Feb. 10 to raise money for the San Diego Food Bank. $1 per dish went to the organization. A total of 1,165 Taste of NFL dinners were sold and $3,495 was raised which translates to 20,790 meals. The national Taste of NFL event raised 1,000,000 meals to fight hunger.
